The Ruby Buddha

- The ruby Buddha with gold temple has been a special creation that the company was made in 2011.
- The weight of the ruby Buddha is 7.365 cts., the columns have a weight of 4.355 cts. and the sphere on top of the temple 50,48 cts.
- All gold is solid as well and the temple has been handmade by the company goldsmiths, so that it does represent a traditional Chinese pagoda. The base is hand-cut from natural black obsidian (originating in Mexico).
- The Buddha is made out of solid ruby from the Longido Mine in Tanzania.
- The ruby mines of Longido Tanzania are non-productive for years and the rough stone for the columns as well as the Buddha has been with us for over twenty years.
