With two venues for two glittering shows

The HKTDC Hong Kong International Jewellery Show hit a new record in 2013 which attracted more than 3,300 exhibitors from 49 countries and regions, as well as over 42,000 buyers from 138 countries and regions. Success of the show has created even more demand for space so in 2014 this world-renowned trading platform will split into two brilliant shows at two great venues:

- HKTDC Hong Kong International Jewellery Show at Hong Kong Convention & Exhibition Centre (HKCEC), for finished jewellery products
- HKTDC Hong Kong International Diamond, Gem & Pearl Show at AsiaWorld-Expo (AWE) for jewellery raw materials

- More space for more exhibitors from around the world to showcase their products
- Greater variety of products creates more business opportunities for all
- More professional, more focused in dedicated trade platforms
- Longer period of shows provides buyers maximum opportunity

The two shows mesh together beautifully to give even greater industry coverage than before. With two world-class venues and overlapping timeframes, they create the best of all possible jewellery worlds.
