Dr Gaetano Cavalieri

One of the most prominent leaders in the international jewellery industry today, Dr Gaetano Cavalieri has served for more than 20 years as president of CIBJO, The World Jewellery Confederation. Uniting national jewellery and gemstone associations from more than 47 countries around the world, and also including many of the industry's major international corporations and international representative associations, CIBJO is the industry's oldest international organization in jewellery sector, having originally been established in 1926. It covers the entire jewellery, gemstone and precious metals sectors vertically, from mine to marketplace, and horizontally within each of the component sectors in the various production, manufacturing and trading centres.

As president of CIBJO, Dr Cavalieri was responsible in July 2006 for the organization receiving "Special Consultative Status" with United Nations Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC), making it the first and only jewellery and gemstone representative to be officially recognized by the international body. Together with the United Nations, he established the World Jewellery Confederation Education Foundation (WJCEF), which is responsible for promoting Corporate Social Responsibility education in the international jewellery and gemstone industries.

In addition to being president of CIBJO, Dr Cavalieri has served as president of the Italian Federation of Gold, Silver and Jewellery Wholesalers, a member of the International Executive Council of the Gemological Institute of America (GIA), a member of the Goldsmiths' Company of London, a member of the European Assay Association, a member of the International Coloured Gemstone Association (ICA), and chief financial officer of the World Diamond Council.

Dr Cavalieri was a consultant to the Italian Ministry of Industry and Commerce and the Ministry of Welfare, and to the European Economic Commission in the areas of harmonization of standards and value added tax (VAT) on gold. He is a consultant to trade fair organizers across Europe, specializing in the luxury industries, was chief of the International Relations Office of Confcommercio (Italian General Trade Organization), a delegate to the Commission of Foreign Trade, a member of the board of the Italian Trade Commission, and an Italian representative to the World Trade Organization and the Transatlantic Business Dialogue.

Mr Ken Scarratt

Prior to joining GIA as Director of Research in 2005, Ken served as theLaboratory Director at the American Gem Trade Association (AGTA) Gemological Testing Centre in New York; Director of the Asian Institute of Gemmological Sciences (AIGS) in Bangkok; and Chief Executive and Director of Laboratory Services at the Gemmological Association and Gem TestinLaboratory of Great Britain (GAGTL) (the forerunner of Gem-A) in London. He was appointed Managing Director of GIA Southeast Asia in 2008, in which role he set up and ran GIA's Bangkok Laboratory, helped setting up GIA Laboratory Hong Kong and GIA Laboratory Japan as well as overseeing GIA's coloured stone and pearl operations globally.

He retired in 2015 but in 2016 became a consultant to Mumtalakat (the Sovereign Wealth Fund for Bahrain) focusing on expanding the capabilities of the Gem & Pearl Testing Laboratory of Bahrain which he had helped set up 25 years previously. Having set up a new entity (DANAT) to take over the functions of GPTLB and lead it to a global leadership in pearl testing between 2016 and 2019, Ken returned to Bangkok leading the ICAGemLab.

Over his career, he assisted in the setting up of pearl and gem laboratories in Bahrain, Qatar and Dubai and consulted for the Bombay Pearl Association to improve their testing facilities. He has been involved in many projects, not the least of which was the examination of the British Crown Jewels; here he detailed every stone in such notable items as the Imperial State Crown, St. Edwards Crown, the Queen Mothers Crown, and the Sceptres. He detailed and graded both the Cullinan I and II diamonds and the Koh-I-Noor, three diamonds that represent the largest and most historically significant.

A writer and speaker on gemmological and trade issues, Ken's articles have appeared in numerous industry publications including The Journal of Gemmology (UK) and Gems and Gemmology (USA). He also co-authored the books The Crown Jewels and The Pearl and the Dragon.

Ken has lectured to gemmologists and traders in many countries including Australia, Bahrain, Brazil, Canada, China, Colombia, France, Hong Kong, India, Israel, Italy, Japan, Korea, Singapore, Thailand, Sri Lanka, UAE, UK and the USA. In addition to his passion for diamonds, rubies, sapphires, and jade, which he explored during his early visits to Hong Kong in the 1980's, Ken also has a strong interest in pearls and has visited many of the cultured pearl farms around the world and natural pearl producing areas.
Having retired from laboratory operations, today Ken focuses his time on his various roles within the World Jewellery Confederation (CIBJO) were he is currently the Dean of the CIBJO Academy as well as being a Vice President of CIBJO, President of CIBJO's Sector A, and President of CIBJO's Pearl Commission.

Mr Jim Li

Mr Zhiwei Li has nearly 40 years of management and practice experience in gems and jewellery industry. Being a leader, promoter and forerunner, Mr Li has witnessed the development and upgrading of the jewellery industry in Panyu, Guangdong, China. He has awarded the title of "Meritorious Person in the Jewellery Industry in the 40th Anniversary of China's Reform and Opening up". For a long time, Mr Li served as the industrial management person-in-charge of a government department, overseeing and serving a large number of local gems and jewellery enterprises. He has devoted half his life to the operation of gems and jewellery enterprises and the industrial development management in Panyu, Guangzhou, and achieved remarkable results in investment promotion for the gems and jewellery industry and its related sectors. Starting around 2013, Mr Li pushed for the Guangdong Gems & Jade Exchange (GDGJE) to be established in Guangzhou. In 2015, he took charge of the specific preparation, operation and management of GDGJE, acting as its President, and also holds the concurrent post of Vice President of the Gems & Jewelry Trade Association of China (GAC). Since taking charge of GDGJE, Mr Li has led the innovation and construction of a business ecosystem of "Trading + Services" for gem and jade products on the platform. He has guided his team to create China's first transparent auction trading model for fei cui and jade, building GDGJE into the China's largest transparent trading channel for gem and jade products featuring fei cui and jade with full category coverage at present. It has become a benchmark platform serving the transformation, upgrading and high-quality development of the gems and jewellery industry. In January 2026, Mr Li retired with honours and has continued to participate in various industrial work in an in-depth manner as an industry expert.

黎志偉先生具備近 40 年的珠寶產業管理和從業經驗，是中國珠寶產業起步、發展的重要見證者，更是中國廣州番禺珠寶產業起步、發展和集聚升級的見證者、領導者、推動者、先行參與者，曾獲“中國改革開放 40 周年珠寶行業功勳人物”稱號。黎先生曾長期作為政府部門的產業管理負責人管理服務轄區廣大珠寶企業，為廣州番禺珠寶企業經營和產業發展管理貢獻了半生精力，在珠寶及相關行業招商引資方面成績斐然。2013 年左右起，黎先生推動廣東省珠寶玉石交易中心(GDGJE)落戶廣州，並於 2015 年起負責廣東省珠寶玉石交易中心具體籌建及運營管理工作，任中心總裁，兼任中國珠寶玉石首飾行業協會副會長。自負責廣東寶交中心工作以來，黎先生主導創新構建平臺珠寶玉石“交易+服務”的立體化業態體系，帶領團隊開創了全國首個翡翠玉石“陽光公盤”交易服務模式，將廣東寶交中心打造成為當前全國規模最大的翡翠玉石為主、覆蓋全品類的珠寶玉石陽光化交易渠道,成為服務珠寶產業升級轉型、高質量發展的標杆性平臺。2026 年 1 月，黎先生榮退，以行業專家身份持續深度參與行業各項工作。

Mr Samuel Kung

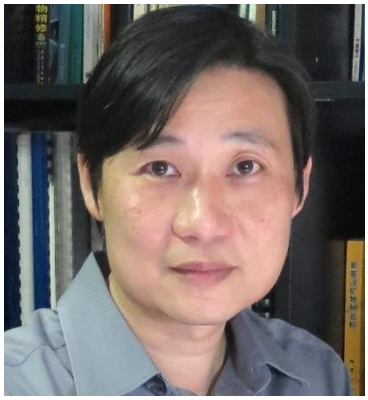

Mr Kung has devoted more than forty years to the luxury and cultural sectors. Throughout his life, he has been committed to integrating the spirit of Eastern aesthetics with modern design culture, using his distinctive taste and vision to promote cultural exchange and fusion. With a design philosophy rooted in the harmony of East and West, he reshaped the contemporary image of the fei cui industry, elevating fei cui from a traditional treasure to an art form with international influence, allowing this Eastern gem to shine sustainably on the global high end jewellery stage. In 2005, Mr Kung founded China's first privately operated contemporary art museum—the Museum of Contemporary Art Shanghai (MoCA Shanghai)—marking a new chapter in China's contemporary cultural and artistic development. For more than two decades, he has upheld the forward looking aesthetic concept of "CROSS+." Under his leadership, the museum has become a hub for international artistic exchange and has collaborated deeply with world class institutions such as the Guggenheim Museum. It has launched pioneering initiatives including the "Animamix Biennale," successfully bringing Chinese contemporary art onto the global stage.

龔明光先生在奢侈品與文化領域深耕逾四十年。他畢生致力於融匯東方美學精神與現代設計文化，以獨到的審美及遠見推動文化的交流與融合。以「中西合璧」的設計哲學，重塑了翡翠產業的時代面貌，讓翡翠從傳統珍寶，昇華為具有國際影響力的藝術品，讓東方瑰寶在世界高級珠寶舞台上，永續閃耀。2005 年，龔先生創立了中國首家獨立的當代藝術館——上海當代藝術館（MoCA Shanghai），由此開啟了中國當代文化藝術的新篇章。二十多年來，他秉持「CROSS+」的前瞻美學理念。美術館不僅成為國際藝術交流的樞紐，更與古根漢美術館等世界級機構深度合作，先後發起「動漫美學雙年展」（Animamix Biennale）等具開創性的項目，成功將中國當代藝術推向國際舞台。
